

Light 'Em Up 2013: No Guilt Pledge

1. I am a mom with mouths to feed, etc. – this isn't the #1 priority
2. I have other Christmas traditions that are good and worthy
 3. If I don't implement this, I am still a great mom
 4. If I try this only on one day, I am still a great mom
5. If I see a mom that goes big with this, I can celebrate her and not condemn myself
6. I do not have to plan every detail, I can leave room for what might just happen if our hearts are open to the needs around us.
7. No matter my budget or ounce of craftiness, I am open to see how this might work – my family, our way.

And, then you realize. It's the purpose of life.

And we have all year.

And our whole lives.

Let your light shine.

Matthew 5:16